

Go green

Five sweet St. Patrick's Day events—whatever your style of revelry.

By Dorkys Ramos

STICK TO TRADITION

NYC St. Patrick's Day Parade

Join 2 million spectators and 150,000 marchers (including groups like New York City Firefighters Stair Climb Team) to celebrate Irish pride. Get decked out in green or risk a pinch!

→ Fifth Ave from 44th St to 79th St (nycstpatrickparade.org). Fri 17 11am–5pm; free.

BAR HOP TILL YOU DROP

St. Paddy's Pub Crawl

If a single day of drinking isn't enough, this annual pub crawl will take you through three days' worth of booze specials to fuel your shameless antics.

→ Various locations (pubcrawls.com). Thu 16–Sat 18; $3–$16.

INHALE AN IRISH MEAL

Kegs & Eggs at SideBAR

Brunch gets the holiday touch at SideBAR's three-hour buffet and open bar. Green eggs, green pancakes and green bagels are served alongside childhood staple Lucky Charms. Wash it all down with unlimited green Bud Light on tap.

→ 118 E 15th St (sidebarny.com). Fri 17, Sat 18 10am–1pm; $60.

SKIP THE HANGOVER

Sober St. Patrick's Day

If you'd rather mark the day sans booze, the New York Irish Center hosts an alcohol-free fete with traditional music, fiddlers, step dancers and treats to eat.

→ St. Patrick's Youth Center, 268 Mulberry St (soberstpatrickday.org). Fri 17 4–7pm; $10–$25.

GO BEHIND THE SCENES

Merchant's House Museum

Tour the museum's servants' quarters, which housed Irish immigrants in the mid–19th century. Hear stories by candlelight of the folks who passed on—and those who stayed behind (ghosts, guys!).

→ 29 E 4th St (merchantshouse.org). Fri 17 at 12:30, 2, 3:30, 6:30, 7pm; $10–$15.

LIES TO TELL TOURISTS

The Staten Island Ferry is among the city's great freebies, but the service used to take its toll. The ride cost a subway token until one Monday morning in 1989, when fed up riders mutinied after a two-hour delay at St. George Terminal at the peak of rush hour. The so-called Pier Pressure Riot lasted three days, with a dozen commuters refusing to leave the boat until Mayor Ed Koch caved, granting free ferry service to all.
